Today's Reading: Luke 24:35-48

Today's gospel, from Luke, continues with the recurring post-Easter theme of Eucharist and discipleship. Luke gives us a risen Jesus who not only appears, talks, and teaches, but he is also a Jesus who is unmistakably human. We come to realize he is not just speaking to those gathered in Emaus. He is speaking to all of us, across the centuries. In our way, we all bear witness to the life, death, and resurrection of Christ, and testify to it every day with our words, our actions, and our choices. Martyrëo is to bear witness to the truth, above all to the truth of the resurrection. We continue what Jesus began. At the end of the Gospel text, Jesus tells them "you are witnesses of these things." How do you respond to these words of Jesus?

El evangelio de hoy, de Lucas, continúa con el tema recurrente post-Pascua de la Eucaristía y el discipulado. Lucas nos presenta a un Jesús resucitado que no sólo aparece, habla y enseña, sino que también es un Jesús inequívocamente humano. Nos damos cuenta de que no sólo está hablando con los que están reunidos en Emaús. Él nos está hablando a todos nosotros, a lo largo de los siglos. A nuestra manera, todos damos testimonio de la vida, muerte y resurrección de Cristo, y lo testificamos cada día con nuestras palabras, acciones y elecciones. Martyrëo es dar testimonio de la verdad, sobre todo de la verdad de la resurrección. Continuamos lo que Jesús empezó. Al final del texto del Evangelio, Jesús les dice "ustedes son testigos de estas cosas". ¿Cómo respondes a estas palabras de Jesús?

All are invited to St. Leonard's Confirmation Mass on Tuesday, April 16th at 6:30pm. Our celebrant will be Archbishop Gustavo. Come and be a witness to this beautiful Sacrament.
