"I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls but especially for poor sinners. I pour out a whol ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My Mercy. The soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment... Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be many." (Diary Entry- 47, "Divine Mercy in My Soul").

Jesús dijo: Quien se acerque ese día a la Fuente de Vida recibirá el perdón total de las culpas y de las penas. (Diario, 300). La humanidad no conocerá paz hasta que se dirija a la Fuente de Mi misericordia." (Diario 699)

Gospel Reading: Mark 16:1-7

The women find that the stone from Jesus' tomb has been rolled back, and an angel reports that Jesus has been raised from the dead. In today's Gospel, Mark reports the names of three women who go to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body. They are Mary Magdalene, Salome, and Mary, the mother of James. According to Mark, these are the same women who were among those watching Jesus' Crucifixion from a distance. Mark reports that these women were followers of Jesus in Galilee and that they ministered to him. Mark also reports that Mary Magdalene and Mary observed where Jesus' body was laid. After his death, these women come again to minister to Jesus. The disciples of Jesus are often clueless about the true identity of Jesus and confounded by his message to them. However, as we hear today's Gospel, we know that the women and the disciples honored Jesus by accepting this mission. What meaning does the resurrection of Jesus have for you?

Las mujeres descubren que la piedra de la tumba de Jesús ha sido quitada y un ángel informa que Jesús ha resucitado de entre los muertos. En el Evangelio de hoy, Marcos informa los nombres de tres mujeres que van al sepulcro para ungrir el cuerpo de Jesús. Son María Magdalena, Salomé y María, la madre de Santiago. Según Marcos, estas son las mismas mujeres que estaban entre los que observaron la crucifixión de Jesús a distancia. Marcos informa que estas mujeres eran seguidoras de Jesús en Galilea y que le ministraban. Marcos también informa que María Magdalena y María observaron dónde estaba puesto el cuerpo de Jesús. Después de su muerte, estas mujeres regresan para ministrar a Jesús. Los discípulos de Jesús a menudo no tienen idea de la verdadera identidad de Jesús y se sienten confundidos por el mensaje que les dirige. Pero al escuchar este Evangelio, sabemos que las mujeres y los discípulos honraron a Jesús al aceptar esta misión. ¿Qué significado tiene para ti la resurrección de Jesús?
